Description

Razor is an attractive and well-bred AQHA 12 year old, 14.3 Hand sorrel gelding. This is a gentle and well put together horse with good conformation, good bone and feet. He has had some professional training, was shown at the local level and had won reserve champion at his first show. In the arena Razor has a nice smooth jog, will collect up and lope out on cue. Takes his leads, has a good stop, backs soft and side passes with ease. He moves off hand and leg cues, rides English and Western, neck reins or direct reins. Razor has been started jumping over small fences. He's a natural and loves it. Outstanding trail horse and is a pleasure to ride out on the trail. He will happily lead, respectfully follow and ride quietly in a group as well as out on his own. Crosses the river, small creeks, and downed timber and navigates our steep mountain trails very well. He is sure footed in the rocks and in rough country. He has been ridden around our busy neighborhood streets and has been exposed to all that we encounter and ride past in an urban environment. Razor was raised on a large ranch and has lots of outside riding experience. He is a pleasure to trail ride on, is smooth traveling in all gates and is fun to ride. Does well turned out with all other horses and is equally content in a smaller pen or box stall. Razor has excellent ground manners. He loves people and attention. This is a very nice, versatile gelding that is a pleasure to have around and work with. Good to clip, bathe, tie, tack, shoe, load and haul. He has no bad habits and is 100% sound. Watch his video!
